ARTICLE I

PURPOSE

The purpose of Georgia Tech Foundation, Inc. (“Foundation”) shall be to promote in various ways the cause of higher education in the State of Georgia; to raise and receive funds for the support and enhancement of the Georgia Institute of Technology (“GIT”); and to aid GIT in its development as a leading educational institution.

ARTICLE II

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1. Authority. The entire management and control of the Foundation shall be vested in a board to be known as the Board of Trustees (“Board”), whose members shall be Elected Trustees, Board Officers, Ex-officio voting Trustees, Ex-officio non-voting Trustees and Trustees Emeriti, as each such term is hereinafter defined (“Trustees”).

Section 2. Number. The Board shall consist of no fewer than fifteen (15) nor more than forty-five (45) elected trustees (“Elected Trustees”), such number to be fixed from time to time by the Board, four (4) Board Officers, initially five (5) ex-officio voting trustees (“Ex-officio voting Trustees”), and initially three (3) ex-officio non-voting trustees (“Ex-officio non-voting Trustees”). A reduction in the number of Elected Trustees shall not have the effect of shortening the term of office of any Trustee. The Ex-officio voting Trustees shall be the President of GIT; the Chairman of the Georgia Tech Advisory Board; and the Chair, Past Chair and Chair-Elect of the Georgia Tech Alumni Association, Inc. The Ex-officio non-voting trustees shall be the Chief Academic Officer of GIT; the Chief Administration and Finance Officer of GIT; the Chief Development Officer of GIT; and the Chief Research Officer of GIT. Board Officers, Elected and Ex-officio voting Trustees (“Voting Trustees”) shall be voting members of the Board and any Committees (as hereinafter defined) to which they are elected or of which they are serving as ex-officio members and, unless otherwise provided for in the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, shall have all the same rights, powers and duties. Ex-officio non-voting trustees shall be non-voting members of the Board and any Committees (as hereinafter defined) to which they are serving as ex-officio members. Additionally, the Board may from time to time at its sole discretion appoint additional ex-officio voting or ex-officio non-voting trustees.

Section 3. Election, Terms and Succession. An Elected Trustee may be elected by the Board at any regular or special meeting. However, unless otherwise determined by the Board, elections to fill vacancies occurring on June 30 shall be held at the last regular meeting prior to the annual meeting. The term of each Elected Trustee shall begin effective as of July 1 and shall be four (4) years unless a shorter term is fixed at the time of his or her election. On the election or re-election of any such Elected Trustee, the Board shall fix his or her term, provided that the term so fixed shall expire on June 30 of some year, shall not exceed four (4) years, and shall be so fixed that as nearly as possible the terms of one-fourth (1/4) of all of the Elected Trustees shall expire on June 30 of each year. The term of an Elected Trustee, who is serving on the Audit Committee (as hereinafter defined) and whose term expires on June 30, will be extended until the Audit Committee presents its annual audit report to the Board. Any Elected Trustee or Board Officer may vote on successor trustees, including voting for himself or herself, and on all other matters, including the question of increasing or reducing the number of Elected Trustees. However, any Voting Trustee who has tendered his or her resignation may not vote upon the election of an Elected Trustee or Board Officer. A person may not be elected to serve more than two (2) consecutive full terms as an Elected Trustee. A person who has served two (2) consecutive full terms as an Elected Trustee shall be eligible for re-election to the Board after one (1) year from the expiration of his or her former term and may serve for additional two (2) consecutive full terms. A person shall not be elected for a term which expires later than his or her seventy-second (72nd) birthday.

Section 4. Trustee Qualifications. Each Elected Trustee must be at least eighteen (18) years old at the time of his or her election and shall have been a regular student of GIT. Each Voting Trustee must be willing to serve on at least one (1) regular standing, ad hoc or other committee of the Board (“Committee”).

Section 5. Resignation and Removal. Any Trustee may resign by filing a written resignation with the Board or with the Secretary of the Foundation, and such person shall thereupon cease to be a Trustee effective as of the time stated therein, and acceptance shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any Elected Trustee may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the Voting Trustees at any legally held special meeting of the Board.

Section 6. Meetings. An annual meeting of the Board shall be held each year on such date as is determined by the Board. In the absence of such a determination, the annual meeting shall be held no later than the last Friday in June. No fewer than three (3) additional regular meetings of the Board shall be held each fiscal year on such dates as are determined by the Board. At all regular meetings, Trustees and officers may be elected or appointed and such other business transacted as the Board deems proper. Special meetings of the Board may be held at any time or place upon three (3) days written notice to all Trustees, upon call of the Chair or any five (5) Elected Trustees. Meetings of the Board shall be held at such places within or outside of Fulton County, Georgia, as are determined by the Board; however, in the absence of such a determination for a particular meeting, such meeting shall be held within Fulton County, Georgia.

Section 7. Notice. The Secretary shall give written notice to all Trustees of all meetings, and in the case of special meetings shall state the object of the meeting; however, the failure to give notice of a regular meeting shall not invalidate actions taken at such meeting. Any Trustee may waive notice of any meeting. Any written notice provided for or required to be given by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law, may be given via facsimile or electronic mail.

Section 8. Quorum and Action of the Trustees. At all regular and special meetings of the Board, a majority of the Voting Trustees shall constitute a quorum and, unless otherwise required by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law, all matters shall be determined by a majority vote of the Voting Trustees present. At all meetings of Committees, a majority of the Voting Trustees who have been appointed or elected to the Committee shall constitute a quorum, and, unless otherwise required by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law, all matters shall be determined by the majority vote of the Committee members present.

Section 9. Action by Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board or any Committee may be taken without a meeting if a majority, or such other percentage required by these Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation to take specific actions, of the Voting Trustees or Committee members consent in writing. Such action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by no fewer than the required number of Voting Trustees or Committee members, and delivered to the Chair or Committee chair, or his or her designee, for inclusion in the minutes or for filing with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. Action taken pursuant to this Section shall be effective when the last required signature is obtained, unless the consent specifies a different effective date. A consent signed pursuant to this Section shall have the effect of a meeting and may be described as such in any document.

Section 10. Termination of Membership Due to Absence. To ensure regular attendance at meetings of the Board, the term of office of any Voting Trustee who, on account of other pressing business, continuing illness, or any other cause, is absent for all regular meetings of the Board held during any consecutive twelve (12) month period shall, ipso facto, immediately terminate, and, in the case of an Elected Trustee, the Board may elect a successor to fill the unexpired term of such former Elected Trustee.

Section 11. Compensation. No Trustee either in such capacity or in any other capacity shall be paid any salary or any other remuneration for his or her services, but he or she may be reimbursed for any expense to which he or she has been put while about the business of the Foundation. Such expense shall be approved by the President, except in the case such expense is incurred outside of the ordinary course of business of the Foundation. In such case, the expense shall be approved by resolution of the Board.

Section 12. Annual Reports. Annual reports for the previous year shall be made by the officers, and may be made by the Committee chairs, no later than the first meeting of the fiscal year. The chair of the Audit Committee shall make the annual report of that Committee at the first meeting of the Board after the annual audit is completed.

Section 13. Trustees Emeriti. In addition to the Voting Trustees and the Ex-officio non-voting Trustees provided for hereinabove, the Board may from time to time designate and appoint any number of Trustees Emeriti who shall have no vote on the committees or Board and whose presence at the meetings of the committees and the Board shall not be counted to reach a quorum. Trustees Emeriti may not make motions during meetings of the committees and the Board. The purpose and function of such Trustees Emeriti shall be to act as advisors to the Board, and as advisors to any Committee to which they are appointed. A person may not be appointed a Trustee Emeritus unless he or she is at least sixty-five (65) years of age at the time of such appointment and shall have formerly served as an Elected Trustee of the Foundation.

Section 14. Standard of Conduct for Trustees and Officers. Each Trustee and officer shall discharge his or her duties as such, including his or her duties as a Committee member, in a manner he or she believes in good faith to be in the best interests of the Foundation and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances.

Section 15. Robert's Rules of Order. The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, as from time to time revised, shall govern the conduct of meetings of the Board and Committees in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation and any special rules of order the Foundation may from time to time adopt.
